

An Earth scientist/environmentalist,
A hospice marketing director/end-of-life specialist,
A natural deathcare educator/filmmaker came together with a vision for a funeral business that would lead the way to a gentle more natural approach to funeral care, offering an array of holistic services to support the end-of-life journey.

The Natural Funeral Living Arts Center

is a community-centered resource for all who want options that are more natural and healing, for us and our Earth.

Green at Last.

Green funeral services, Holistic care for grief and loss Natural products, Educational resources and seminars.

102 W. Chester, Lafayette, CO 80026
Serving Boulder County and Beyond

720.515.2344 TheNaturalFuneral.com

The Natural Funeral

Living Arts Center for End-of-Life Education & Green Funerals

720.515.2344 TheNaturalFuneral.com

The Natural Funeral Living Arts Center

A new concept funeral business for the 21st Century

Eco

Green Funeral Services and Natural Products.

Whether you choose burial or cremation, we strive for “green at last,” meeting you where you are.

Healing

Holistic Counselors and Therapists for pre-death planning, grief care, and more.
Resources in our Gift Shop.

Wisdom

End-of-Life Education, seminars and other events with the most respected local voices, so you can face the future with knowledge and guidance.

Love

“TNF enabled us to deal with our son’s death in a peaceful and healing way. We felt your love and support throughout the whole process.”

D.W. Boulder.

Our Values

Choice: Natural, Gentle, Holistic, Local

Families’ Rights: Consumer inclusion and transparency

Environmental Sustainability: Eco options

Aesthetics: Beauty as a tonic for loss

Community: A Resource for all

Why Natural?

Your final footprints can be gentler on the earth.

Natural care of your loved-one at death means no toxic embalming chemicals and a commitment to biodegradable, earth-friendly products.

Holistic and natural approaches to healing can support the bereaved in their journey to wholeness. Our skilled natural care practitioners have years of experience in transforming grief for those left behind.

