Definitions:

* A Vigil. A special time for families to be with their loved-one after death. It may be in accordance with a particular faith, or it may be time to simply honor and take in the significance of the death.

 Reverent Body Care. This is our specialization - natural care of your loved-one at death using pure essential oils. Some families appreciate the opportunity to reverently honor the physical remains of the deceased with our staff facilitating a ritual of care.

We honor all beliefs and incorporate your wishes in how we perform this aspect of death care.

Locally crafted eco urns also available for purchase from our store.
