Our Philosophy. At The Natural Funeral, we believe ecological and holistic death care choices offer healing for our client families and the Earth.

Legal Regulations. There may be instances where legal regulations require the purchase of items you did not specifically request. If this occurs, we will provide a written explanation on the Statement of Goods and Services. For inquiries about your funeral agreement, you can contact us directly. If you have questions regarding regulations that apply to your funeral agreement, please contact the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies at (303) 894-7855.

No Embalming. The Natural Funeral focuses on natural death care and does not perform embalming. In Colorado, embalming is not legally required. The regulations for natural burial, including the requirements for grave liners and outer burial containers, may vary by cemetery.

Pricing. To guarantee pricing, discuss prepayment with us. For individuals on hospice, we will honor the price quote provided at the original time of contact. Pricing does not include applicable sales taxes.

Payments. Payment is required prior to the delivery of services. We accept cash, checks, cashier's checks, ACH transfers, Venmo, money orders, pre-funded arrangements, verified life insurance assignments with a 4% service fee, and credit cards.

Veterans' Benefits and Medicaid. As a veteran-owned business, we are honored to support families using veterans' benefits and offer a $300 discount for the veterans we take into our care. We also accept Medicaid payments and offer discounts to Medicaid families.

Children's Discount. At The Natural Funeral, we understand that the death of a child can be uniquely challenging. For this reason, and as a service to our community, we are honored to offer a $4,000 discount to the families of children aged 12 and younger.

Meeting Your Needs. Should you have any questions or special requests, please don't hesitate to ask. Just because a specific option has not been listed does not mean it's unavailable. We are honored to plan a funeral service tailored specifically to your needs.

We believe ...

that meaningful ceremony at life's milestone moments, especially at death, promotes healing.

that beauty uplifts us in our grief.

that honoring and caring for the body of a loved one can ease our letting go.

that green burial, Terramation (a.k.a. natural organic reduction), and water cremation honor the Earth and protect it for future generations.

Terramation Service Packages

Terramation, formally known in Colorado as Natural Reduction, is widely believed to be the most environmentally beneficial and carbon sequestering method of disposition. The precise environment within our Chrysalis Vessels® allows us to transform the most basic components of our bodies into the form where the element therein can most easily be passed on to new life: Regenerative Living Soil.

Natural Burial Service Packages

Natural Burial (also known as green burial) is the practice of returning your loved one to the earth without embalming preparation, plastics, metal caskets, or concrete burial vaults. It is a beautiful, meaningful, and instinctual process which we are proud to offer in any of the many cemeteries in the area which allow burial without the use of a concrete grave liner. In situations where your family's preference is to have a burial performed in a cemetery that does require a concrete burial vault, we will still proudly perform as natural of a burial as possible in that cemetery.

Water Cremation Service Packages

Water Cremation (formally known as alkaline hydrolysis) is a method by which a cremation is performed using an alkaline solution. The process is closely comparable with flame cremation, although it uses a fraction of the energy (with no direct combustion). Water cremation yields a slightly greater volume of cremated remains, which are white as opposed to gray. Also, the liquid by-product of water cremation, “essence,” is available to return to families as a beautiful, symbolic, natural fertilizer.

Flame Cremation Packages

Flame cremation has been a common method of final disposition around the world for many thousands of years. We are proud to offer flame cremations to the families which we are honored to serve, as we understand that many people hold religious, cultural, and/or personal preferences toward flame cremation. To emphasize our commitment to our shared Earth, we also make a donation for the planting of 50 trees for each flame cremation which we perform.
